

ASSOCIATE

Andreea Nica

About

Andreea Nica is a dual Swiss and Romanian qualified lawyer with an international background, passionate about working in multi-jurisdictional teams, building strong case strategies and solving intricate legal and technical problems.

She is particularly involved in internal investigations of financial institutions and their cross-border operations.

In addition, she has experience in assisting States, State-owned entities and large business clients with global operations in complex international arbitration proceedings under various rules (including UNCITRAL, ICC, SCAI, VIAC) governed by various laws (including Romanian, Swiss, French, German) and seated in various jurisdictions, both as counsel and tribunal secretary. She also often advises on cross-border litigation, private international and European law, as well as a wide range of contractual, corporate and regulatory matters.
