À propos de

Raphael Annasohn has extensive experience in international and domestic M&A transactions in various industries focusing on private M&A and private equity transactions, corporate reorganizations and restructurings as well as corporate law and general contractual matters, in particular joint ventures, partnerships and shareholders' agreements. Furthermore, he specializes in the fields of venture capital and startups and assists clients in their ongoing commercial activities. During his practice, Raphael Annasohn has gained particular experience in asset deals, management participation schemes and long term incentive plans as well as up-/cross-stream topics.

Raphael Annasohn has several speaking engagements on M&A related topics (e.g. HWZ Hochschule für Wirtschaft Zürich; Course on Commercial Law at the University of St. Gallen) and is a regular contributor to private M&A and private equity publications.

Raphael Annasohn is particularly known for his accuracy, negotiation skills and understanding of the business environment. He is listed as "Up and Coming" in Chambers Global 2024 in Corporate/M&A. Legal 500 ranks him as Next Generation Partner in Commercial/Corporate/M&A and describes him as "standing out for his great communications skills and being extremely thorough". Leaders League lists him as key contact in Corporate/M&A and he is further recognized as Rising Star by Euromoney's Expert Guide in the fields of Corporate/M&A/Private Equity. Clients in Chambers mentioned him as "As an excellent negotiator and an experienced private M&A lawyer, who clearly went the extra mile throughout the deal." WWL recommends Raphael Annasohn for his M&A and Governance practice.
